

Online supplement 2

High Fidelity Simulation Training

Semi Structured Interview Questions

- What do you remember about the simulation training?
- Tell me about your experience of on call working
- How did you feel about being on call before the simulation training?
- How did you first feel about the concept of simulation training?
- How did you feel about the simulation training after the first session?
- How did you feel about the simulation training after the second session?
- How did you find the simulation training as a learning tool?
- In what ways did simulation training help you with your learning needs?
- In what ways was simulation training a positive experience?
- What were the benefits to simulation training?
- In what ways was simulation training a negative experience?
- What limitations did you find to simulation training?
- If you were to change simulation training how would you change it?
- How do you feel about being on call now you've done the simulation training?
- What would you say to others about simulation training?
- How impact has simulation training had on your practice?
- Any other comments?